Additional Town Topics

J. Fairbairn, and son, of the Vermilion, were in town during the week, combining business with pleasure.

Chas McManus, of Edmonton,
spent Sunday at his home here.
He was accompanied by his friend
Mr. Dodson.

J. F. Fowler and family are expected here on Saturday of this week. For the present they will reside over the store.

A. S. Rosenroff's building, on Hull street, were improved in appearance this week by a coat of paint from F. P. Spencer's artists.

J. Stevens, of the Rock Island
Implement Co., was in town this week strengthening up the season's business with the local agent, H. D.
Farris.

G. M. Mayberry bought the stock of jewelry and optical goods
from Ernest H. Hall on Tuesday of this week and will move them
to his store on Pearce St.

Miss Effie Eggleston and Miss Lottie Gould very pleasantly entertained their friends at the home of the former last Thursday evening.
About fifty were present.

Wednesday of this week was Edmonton's civic holiday in honor of the crossing of the first C.N.R.
train over the Saskatchewan bridge
which event occurred last Monday
at 2:45 p.m.

Harvey S. Green's lecture on Oddfellows in the Methodist church Friday evening. An exceedingly rare treat is in store for those who attend. The ladies are especially invited.

The market for new coats opens at 20c, but as yet only a few loads have been marketed. The farmers are taking advantage of the fine weather and are getting their plowing and threshing done.

Geo. D. Wallace and bride arrived home on Wednesday afternoon's train after an extended honeymoon trip through Ontario.
They will take up house-keeping in their home on Lorne St. west.

Our neighboring exchanges of this week report the picking of wild strawberries in their respective localities. This district is not behind them, as last week A. Mc-Kenzie also picked strawberries on the prairie just east of town.

Judge Scott has decided to hold sittings of the court here, the first sitting will be held on the 10th of next month. This is a step in the right direction as it will be a great convenience to the witness in the various cases. The Judge is taking a proper view of the situation.

Fulton, S. D. News. That
briny little man from Iowa charmed our people. At times he was more in tears, and at other times
the church building rang with laughter and applause. He will give his lecture in the Methodist church Friday evening here.

Geo. B. Henwood arrived from Port Hope, Ont., on Wednesday
last week and has opened a law
office in the brick block Railway Street. He also has money to loan without delay. He comes recommended as a clever young man, and The Times wishes him
every success.

A general meeting of the Conservative Association, Wetaskiwin,
and district will be held in Heric's Hall on Saturday, November 1st, at 2 p.m. for the purpose of re-organizing, and for other business. All Conservatives are requested to attend.—H. C. R. WALKER, President.

What might have been a fatal accident happened to A. Viklund on Monday last. He was working on the pile driver at the new Rod-berg bridge across the Pinestone
when a rope broke, allowing the 1,500 pound hammer to fall. The hammer in falling just grazed his side but he was knocked unconscious to the ground, and remained in that condition for several hours. He had been closer to the hammer's head, had been more stunty killed. The rope that broke flew with terrific velocity and came so near injuring Neil Campbell that it knocked his hat off. Fortunately no serious results occurred.

Farley-Kennedy.

A quiet and very pretty wedding was solemnized in Calgary on Tuesday of this week when Miss Anne Kennedy and T. J. Farley were united in the holy bonds of mari-mony. Miss Kennedy, who has been on an extended visit with Uncle Sam's boys, was met on her return at Calgary by Mr. Farley, who left here on Monday morning, and they were married at the manse on Tuesday. Both these young people are well known and held in the highest esteem and have the best wishes of their hosts of friends.
The Times extends hearty congratulations.

Church Chimes.

The Woman's Guild of Immanuel Parish church, will be at home at Mrs. Phillips' Friday evening.
High Tea served from 5 to 8.
Music and other entertainments
provided.

The Annual Harvest Thank-
giving services will be held in the Church of England on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., conducted by Rev. Henry Allen Gray, B.A., Edmonton. Holy Communion at 11 a.m. Special music and solo at each service.

Rev. C. Cascardi arrived from Wetaskiwin, Ont. last Thursday and delivered two excellent sermons
in the Methodist church on Sunday.
He is a young man of vim and is a strong acquisition to the ministry of the Edmonton district. His field of labor is at Blackfalds, but he will preach here until the recovery of the pastor, Rev. J. Smith.

Before many months pass this little town can boast of six churches
as the Swedish Presbyterian congregation proposes commencing at once the erection of an edifice.
The lots chosen for the church are on the corner of Dufrain St. east and Michigan St., and it is estimated that the building when completed will cost $10,000. Stone and sand for the foundation will be hauled in a few days.

Wetaskiwin Town Council.

The council held a special meeting
on Tuesday evening of last week
to discuss the question of fire protection.
Present, Mayor Dickson, Councillors
McEaghen, McKay, and Talbot.

The matter of providing a water supply for Wetaskiwin was considered.
Talbot—Finch—That the committee on public works, under instructions of the committee on fire, water and light, proceed with the sinking of a water tank for storing water, after
to be located near the new water works, and the Merchants Bank. The motion was carried.

Coun. McEaghen proposed that before proceeding with the tanks an arrangement will be made. Lost on the voice.

The secretary was instructed to write to the Northwest government for the loan of a well sinking machine,
and also to write to the various manufacturers of fire engines.

A. S. ROSENROFF, Clerk.

Births.

BARNHILL—In Wetaskiwin, on the 20th inst., the wife of A. Barnhill, of a son.

Married.

FARLEY-KENNEDY—At Calgary, on the 21st inst., T. J. Farley to Miss Anne Kennedy, both of Wetaskiwin.

NETZSCHE-WINDSON—In Wetaskiwin,
on the 18th inst., by Rev. J. A.
Claxton, Jacob Netzsche to Harriet Windson, both of near Lamerton.

Deaths.

RENNET—At Dried Meat Lake, on the 21st inst., August Renner, aged 22 years.

MUQUELON—In Wetaskiwin, on the 21st inst., Joseph Romeo, young est son of Mr. and Mrs. L. T.
Muquelson, aged 3 years, 6 months
and 21 days.

Jottings by the Man in the Street.

We do not necessarily endorse the sentiment expressed by this or any other correspondent
under this heading.

I have heard folks say "it does not take much to amuse a fool" and as I am constantly finding amusing things in our town, I am beginning to think I am one of the crowd and have no objection to being included in the list of fools, feeling quite satisfied that I am not the only one here, although perhaps more easily amused than most of my brethren. I would like, Mr.
Editor, to tell you about some of the things I notice from time to time in our town. Of course you know there are many wise men in our town, but
no doubt they sometimes do some
very wise things, but owing to my unfortunate weakness I fear I do not appreciate all their actions, and I
often derive only amusement from
many of them. For instance, some time ago our wise men bought a man-
made five pump, and a machine which
has been apparently specially manufactured for the purpose of providing occupation for our local athletes, and
was intended to furnish the stuffing out
of my brethren. I would like, Mr.

things I notice from time to time in
our town. Of course you know there are many wise men in our town, but
no doubt they sometimes do some
very wise things, but owing to my un-
fortunate weakness I fear I do not
appreciate all their actions, and I
often derive only amusement from
many of them. For instance, some
time ago our wise men bought a man-
made five pump, and a machine which
has been apparently specially manufactured for the purpose of providing occupation for our local athletes, and
was intended to furnish the stuffing out
of my brethren. I would like, Mr.

The Wetaskiwin Fair

The fourth annual fair of the Wetaskiwin Agricultural Society was held on Wednesday of last week, and was a most gratifying success. Threatening clouds were gathering in the morning, which no doubt, kept large numbers of people home, but, nevertheless, the crowd was the largest ever assembled in town.

The number of exhibits was also much in advance of last year, and nearly filled the large "Crystal Palace." But there should have been more agricultural exhibits. In a large exhibition district, such as we have here, the exhibits should fill a hall twice as large as the present building.

The horse and cattle exhibits were much in advance of last year, and nearly all the sections of these classes were well filled. Considerable encouragement must be made, however, in the sheep and pig exhibits, as the number of entries in these classes was not up to expectations. The exhibit of dogs was a new feature, and several of the canines were shown, but the competition was not keen.

In the ladies' department nearly all the classifications were well filled, and in some cases the lady judges had a very difficult task. For instance, in the "embroidery with silk" exhibit they awarded six first prizes and two second.

The Wetaskiwin Citizens Band turned out in the afternoon and rendered several selections, which were greatly appreciated, but in justice to the boys we must state that several of the players were detained from going to the ground.

The following is a list of the prize winners:

It was apparent from the first, however, that the horse racing was the main attraction as the large grand stand was filled even before the races commenced. The track was in good condition and the entries were well filled excepting the named race which had four entries but only three starters. This race was the first on the program, but was not very interesting owing to the unevenness of the contest of horses. It was mile heats, best 3 in 5. Pioneer Pete had a walk-over, beating his opponents in several rounds. The summary is as follows:

W. H. Eggleston's Pioneer Pete 1 1 1
P. Patenaude's Dick 3 2 2
J. D. Cowan's Bill Cowan 3 2 2
Time, 2:44, 2:36, 2:52.

The Farmers Running Race was much more exciting as the finish was close. This was half mile heats 2 in 3. Only three horses started, but they were runners. Summary:

Geo. Campbell's French Joe 1 1 1
Col. Denton's Dick 3 2 2
Vic. Campbell's Skip 3 2 2
Time, 42, 43.

The Farmers Trotting Race was the most exciting of the afternoon. Five starters went under the wire, and the race was keenly contested but the record still remains intact. A collision occurred in the first heat, in which E. Groves had several spokes of his cart broken, but fortunately no further damage was done, and he was able to continue, but his eligibility to enter the race is being considered by the judges. Summary:

P. Patenaude's Dick 1 1 1
R. T. Ouley's Cornish 3 2 2
D. Andler's Dave 3 2 2
R. Morrison's Skip 1 1 1
E. Groves' Pigeon 3 2 2
Time, 7:45, 8:24.

In the open half-mile running race there were six starters. The horses were well bunched from start to finish, and the race was a keen one. The Strathcona horses, "Bonny Hen" and "Shoe String," carried off first and second money but they had to go. Summary:

Sunder & Co., Ltd., have secured a large number of Alberta stallions, and are prepared to do lower and all kinds of stable work of the cattle, horses, and other animals, with full facilities, and at the lowest prices.

Hams, Bacon and Lard, Pork and Bologna Sausage, Fresh White Fish received every Thursday.

P. BURNS & CO.

Shops close every night except holidays at 8:30.

T. Meade's Bonny Hen 1 1
T. Meade's Shoe String 3 2 2
E. Eggleston's Cornish 3 2 2
P. Hamilton's Snail Boy 3 2 2
E. Hamilton's Wetaskiwin Boy 3 2 2
P. Patenaude's Snowball 3 2 2
Time, 65, 57.

Keen excitement was manifest when twelve ponies lined up to start in the quarter mile pony race. They all got a good even start and ran for all that was in them, and kept well lunched all the way. E. Pittman's little pony took second place in the first heat crowding "Bonny Hen" for first. The Strathcona horse "Bonny Hen" also won first money in this race, with a half-breed (name unknown) pony a close second and E. Pittman's little pony "Dolly West" a close third. Time, 29, 24.

The last and probably the best race of the day was the Indian pony race. This race always causes great enthusiasm as the Indian is out for the money every time. And this year was no exception. The ten ponies that faced the starter were very evenly matched in speed, and the third heat had to be run to decide the event. The winners were John, Alex and Peter. Time, 60, 63, 63.

It is much regretted that the last race on the program, the Red River Cart Race, was not filled owing to the squaws being unable to procure carts.

SKITS

Where were the dog kennel?

The race track was in excellent condition.

The Indian ponies ran from the word go.

W. Dudgeon V. S. knows how to start a race.

The judges knew their business and gave entire satisfaction.

Only one fair on the grounds, and he was winning money.

E. Groves carries off the banner with 15 first and 11 second prizes. Frank Lucas comes next with 11 first and 6 second prizes.

The "Crystal Palace" should be floored and painted before another exhibition. It would be the means of increasing the finer exhibits.

Col. Denton's horse from Strathcona made a good showing winning first money in the open run and pony race and second money in the open run and second money in the open run and second money in the open run.

Had the crowd that viewed the races from behind the wire fence paid the admission fee, the society could build another long strip of fence with the extra gate receipts.

If I had only fitted up my team a little and groomed the cow and driven in some of my bunch of cattle, I could have taken several first prizes, could be heard from the lips of several critics on the ground. Let these people make an effort next year!

only act as a souvenir of pleasant memory and always be a medium for bringing to their attention the thought of the friends they had left behind.

Mr. Fowler, in reply on behalf of himself and Mrs. Fowler said it did not need a tangible expression of the good feeling of the people to make them realize that they had a place in their hearts. They had been with them for the past eleven years, and he did not expect that they would ever form friendships again that would so entwined themselves around their hearts as those in this church. This church had been their home so long that it was the hardest task to part. He owed a great deal to this church. But they were going away at the call of duty. There would be opportunities in the west for him and those associated with him that they would not have had here. He was pleased that his first public act in the west had been to take the chair at a W. C. T. U. meeting. In closing he again thanked the friends for their very kind and beautiful expression of feeling.

Several of the prominent men of the church were then called upon to say a few words.

Mr. R. Breen spoke of his acquaintance with Mr. Fowler for 13 or 14 years, and their association in this church for ten years.

Mr. R. T. Riley said he and Mr. Fowler had been neighbors, residing on the same street for eighteen years and had always got along very well. He hoped that Mr. Fowler would not become a rusty Methodist in Wetaskiwin. The church there had a debt of $600 to be removed, and a paragon to be torn down and rebuilt. He had no doubt that temporal prosperity would follow Mr. Fowler and his associates there.

Mr. W. R. Talbot said he had never been associated with a better man than Mr. Fowler. He was most pronounced in taking a stand against anything he thought wrong. Many were sorry that he was going away. Young churches would suffer, and the school board would suffer.

Mr. S. Harvey wished Mr. Fowler a good time, good luck and God speed in the west.

Mr. G. N. Jackson said that Mr. Fowler had all success. Young church wished him, it would be beyond anything he had ever dreamed of.

Rev. F. M. Wootton spoke of Mr. Fowler as the preacher's friend, always championing and aiding his pastor. The preacher at Wetaskiwin would rejoice that he had found a man.

The hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds," was sung; a solo, "Face to Face," was sung by Miss Carrie Miller, and then fruit, cakes and lemonade were served. It was nearly 11 o'clock when Rev. Dr. Steward pronounced the benediction.

Mr. Fowler has gone into partnership with Mr. F. L. MacLellan, recently manager of H. B. Co's boot department here, and Mr. Thos. G. Breen, lately traveler for Dysop-Gibson & Co., all three have been active members of Young church.

Earewell to Mr. and Mrs. Fowler

Wetaskiwin may feel honored that she is having Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fowler coming within her boundaries to reside. Mr. Fowler has been a prominent citizen of Winnipeg for many years, and has done much to promote the development of that metropolis. But his energies have been more particularly directed along educational lines, as he has had the honor of being chairman of the school board for several years, and he was a member with prestige. On Monday of last week he laid the corner stone for a new school building, and at the close of the ceremony his associates presented him with a handsome silver trowel, appropriately engraved. Then on Tuesday evening the congregation of Young church tendered Mr. and Mrs. Fowler a farewell of which event the Free Press gives the following lengthy account:

An enjoyable fruit society was held in Young church last evening. The pastor Rev. F. M. Wootton, presided, and as the friends were gathering, Mr. R. Wilkinson, the organist, gave a photograph entertainment. At the same time the members and adherents of the church improved the opportunity of cultivating acquaintanceship.

Later on in the evening the recording steward, Mr. J. M. Horns, was placed in charge of the proceeding. He began with the observation that it would be no breach of confidence to make known to the friends that they had met for dual purpose. The society part had been a success, and now he had the honor and privilege, as a recording steward, of reporting the congregation in the object that had brought them together. He called Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fowler to the platform, and on behalf of the congregation and Sunday school, presented a beautiful gold watch to Mr. Fowler and a gold chain to Mrs. Fowler. He said they would have been notified if they had allowed the opportunity to pass without expressing in a tangible manner their good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Fowler. For himself, he felt that on making the presentation he added the hope that when Mr. and Mrs. Fowler went to their field of labor, a thousand miles across the land, they would bring sun than they stood tonight, the beautiful watch would not

Dried Meat Laks.

His many friends will regret to learn that after only a weeks illness August Reimer, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Reimer, passed away on Monday from inflammation in the bowels. August was a sturdy young farmer only 22 years old and his many friends will greatly miss him from their circle. The funeral will be held at the home on Wednesday at 1 p.m. The entire community extends its deepest sympathy to the mourning family.

Mrs. H. H. Rowe received word last week that her mother, Mrs. A. E. Gore, of Elk Point, S. D., was severely ill. Mrs. Rowe took Wednesday morning's train for the old home.

The people of Dried Meat have been meeting at the home of Wm. Cole Sunday evening for a song service. A cordial invitation is extended towards friends to come to the practice.

Most all of the steers have been sold from this district for this season.

Wm. Ferguson, Jr., has his repair cottage in a fair way to completion. It will be for improvement to the country.

Chas. Nelson has rent of 40 acres of Minor Moore's C.P.R. farm for the coming year.

Messrs Len Hartman, Hucksch, and Schlegel are threshing lustily. A. E. Lee will also run his machine in the near future. The more the merrier.
